Out In The Park shuts Fiesta Texas down for celebration

SAN ANTONIO – The Best Non-Fiesta Event of 2015 returns to Six Flags Fiesta Texas. The theme park will close its gates to the public to host the second annual Out In The Park, an LGBT Pride event, on Sept. 23.

Guests will have access to park rides, including its award-winning roller coasters, and be able to play games. Additionally, the park will host live performances on five different stages, with cover bands, DJs and drag performers, including those from Ru Paul's Drag Race.

"It's a chance to come out and celebrate who you are with others like you in a very exciting environment,” said Joan Smith, the assistant coordinator for Rey Lopez Entertainment, the organization hosting the event.

Ticket prices are based on proximity to the event date. Guests should use the discount code “Outinthepark” to purchase the tickets for 25 percent off day-of-event price. Tickets may be purchased for $40.99 if purchased by Aug. 28.

Between Aug. 29 and Sept. 22, prices rise to $45.99 with the discount code. Guests may purchase tickets at the front gate for $50.99 on the day of the event.

Event parking in the Six Flags parking lot is free. Season pass holders and holders of regular park tickets will need to purchase a separate ticket to attend.

Tickets are available for purchase at sixflags.com/fiestatexas. For additional inquiries about the event, call 210-697-5442.

ABOUT OUT IN THE PARK

Out In The Park is an LGBT Pride event hosted at Six Flags theme parks. The event has been hosted by Six Flags Great America in Chicago since 2013. San Antonio’s Six Flags began hosting the event in 2015. The San Antonio Current named Out In The Park the Best Non-Fiesta Event of 2015. Out In The Park is hosted by Rey Lopez Entertainment, a production company that regularly host drag shows in San Antonio.
